PORTUGAL MAY WAR AGAINST GERMANY; TEUTONS REJOICE AS PRZEMYSL FALLS

VICTORY IS CALLED LARGEST OF WAR

Lisbon, June 4.—(Via Paris).—Protesting vehemently against the sinking of two Portuguese ships by German submarines the press of Portugal demands that the government immediately sever diplomatic relations with Germany.

London, June 4.—The second editions of the London morning papers today publish the confirmation from official sources in Petrograd of the fall of Przemyśl. "Neutrality With United States Imaginary" Declares Von Jagow, The German Secretary

Berlin, June 4.—(Via London).—The Kreuz Zeitung in its issue of today publishes the substance of the interview given the Associated Press May 30 by Gottlieb Von Jagow, Imperial Foreign Secretary, on Germany's answer to the Washington note concerning the Lusitania case, in which the secretary said he believed it essential to establish a common basis of fact before entering upon a discussion of the issue involved. This is done, the paper says, on the strength of the report reaching Berlin from the Reuter Telegram company of London, that the forthcoming American note to Germany, foreshadows a severance of diplomatic relations with Germany.

Continuing the Kreuz Zeitung says: "We want to remind America once more that Great Britain bears the responsibility for the submarine war. Germany would have stopped it had Great Britain been willing to give up her war of starvation. At one time America could have exerted pressure on Great Britain to this end but it did not do so. Now that the war of starvation has failed America comes forward with the unusual proposal that we shall stop the submarine war. Naturally, there can be no talk of this. Foreign Secretary Jagow has pointed out what can be done for the safety of American passengers and American ships. Americans again have shown the way to reconciliation and the protection of their real interest.

"But it appears if one may trust the reports about the note, that they do not wish to find this way, but rather do they desire to lend their moral support to Great Britain, in whose interests they long ago gave up real neutrality. Let them do it. The value of diplomatic relations with the United States has to us become rather imaginary."

DANIELS SAYS AIR CRAFT IS TO RULE

Annapolis, Md., June 4.—Prediction that war air craft of the not distant future will be as fearful engines of destruction as the dreaded under-sea craft was made by Secretary Daniels in addressing the graduating class of the naval academy today.

"In the European war," he said, "there have been no surprises, no startling victories, no crushing defeats that could be called effective. The slaughter there has been unprecedented by the character of the battles that stamped an enemy by taking him unaware has passed away. The effectiveness of the flanking movement has been seriously impaired. Why?—The soaring souls carry messages from trench to trench, and the sudden alarm that resulted in the routing of mighty armies became ancient history when the modern engines and gasoline enabled man to conquer the regions of the air."

"What we have seen in these swift winged, eagle eyes of the army or navy is but the dawn of the coming day when we shall make the heavens carry our war craft as easily as we navigate the sea with our dreadnoughts."

Secretary Daniels spoke of the marvelous developments of the submarine and added: "Almost daily you are startled to read of the torpedoing of a mighty vessel by these small under-sea stiletts. The submarine's precision of aim, its deadliness of execution, its ability to do its deadly work and disappear in a moment challenge the world's wonder."

"It seems only a few days ago that we were wondering if the submarine would become a really important part of the fleet. Today many are seriously debating whether our giant craft will continue to be the backbone of the squadrons that constitute a country's protection."

"The last congress expressed its faith in the submarine by voting the money to build twenty-six new submarines, three of them to be sea-going of a size and (Continued on Page Eight)

Fifteen true bills were returned by the grand jury, which reported to Judge Stephenson at one o'clock this afternoon after being in continuous session for three and one-half days.

Of this number, ten were made public, as listed above. The other five are being kept secret until the persons indicted can be apprehended.

Sensational developments are expected when one of the secret indictments is made public, according to reliable information received this afternoon. In this connection, it is said that a prominent resident of the county has found it convenient to be absent from the county since the grand jury went into session last Monday morning.

The grand jury was not discharged, but excused subject to recall within two or three weeks.

Prosecuting Attorney Micklethwait advising the court that certain cases will be ready for investigation within that time, Judge Stephenson thanked the jurors for their faithful work on behalf of the people of Scioto county.

Included in the report was a word of commendation for the manner in which the county jail is being managed by the sheriff and matron, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. (Pete) Smith. Conditions there were found to be highly satisfactory, the report declared. Members of the jury visited the jail just before preparing its report.

William Owens and Joseph Moore were indicted on several counts, growing out of their alleged theft of hams and lard from George Jacobs, the Eleventh street butcher on the night of May 1. The stolen goods were valued at $5.38. Both are in the county jail.

Marion Hall is the man captured by the C. & O. detectives April 13 on a slinky boat near the Ohio river west of Portsmouth while on the hunt for Bud Logan. A loaded revolver was in his possession, it is claimed. He is in jail.

Charles Williams is the negro captured by Sheriff Smith and Deputy Arthur and Nance east of New Boston in an improvised camp on May 13 while raiding hobo camps. The officers claimed he carried a loaded revolver. He is in jail.

Joel Spicer is charged with the theft of 42 chickens from the chicken coop of Anna Meatz on the boulevard on the night of December 13 last. He is out on bond.

The theft of $60 from the Steamer Courier while at the local wharf on March 28 is charged against Dan Carter, alias George Anderson, a negro. He is in jail.

Edward Odle was indicted on the charge of burglarizing the John Shaffer store in Friendship, taking goods valued at $34.80. He is in jail.

Herbert Vaughn was indicted on the testimony of his wife, Mamie Vaughn, who claims that he cut her with a knife on April 5 last. He is in jail.

Among the cases ignored were those of Tom Holsinger and his son Albert Holsinger and Wesley McGraw, West Side citizens, charged with unlawfully cutting timber, and Joseph Osborne, of New Boston, charged with a crime against nature.

Albert Holsinger and Osborne are in jail, but they will be released at once. The other two were out on bond.

Melvin E. Pank was foreman of the grand jury.

The Fashion Great Stock Reducing Sale

Beginning with tomorrow, Saturday, June 5th, $10,000 worth of merchandise must be sold regardless of former price and value. We are overstocked that's the secret of this terrible "slaughter" in seasonal merchandise. We must unload them while the season is still at its height and when the buying public will appreciate such values. The weather being against summer stocks another reason for this unexpected sacrifice. Remember there is nothing reserved, nothing singled out of the rest of the stock. Everything will go and must go under the hammer even those but a day or so in stock and the latest arrivals from the centers of "Fashion."

This Sale Surpasses All Others Previous On Record

You must come to realize the truth of this statement, nothing could convince you better than the "final test" of inspecting the values offered. They are too numerous to mention here and besides we would much rather avoid exaggerations in our advertising, so make it sure to come tomorrow. Everything to gain and nothing to lose with you, while we have to win your confidence which is the whole foundation of our "success" or we lose it all.

Made Bed On B. & O. Tracks, Chas. Denny Killed By Train

The terrible mangled body of Charles Denny, a young farmer, was found beside the B. & O. S.W. tracks near his home at Petra, Ohio, between Jackson and Hamden by the crew of a night extra freight train Friday morning.

The body was identified by means of a fish found alongside the railroad, the men learning where Denny had purchased the fish.

It is supposed that he sat down on the track to rest and fell asleep while returning home from Jackson, the train killing him on its down trip to Portsmouth. Conductor John Brandan and Engineer Fred Dean had charge of the train. Denny was married but separated from his wife.

Alvira Elizabeth Nye-Gates and her twin sister, Almira Angeline Nye, were born October, 1828, at Middleport, Meigs county, Ohio. They were the youngest children of Melzar and Phoebe Sprague Nye. Milan, June 4.—Countess Marie Tarnowsky, sentenced in May, 1910, to eight years' imprisonment for complicity in the murder of Count Kamorowsky at Venice, in November, 1907, has been pardoned and released.

The trial of the countess with Dr. Naumoff and Attorney Prihokoff, accused of complicity with her in the crime was one of the most remarkable in the criminal annals of Italy. All three were found guilty. The trial, which lasted nearly one hundred days, was attended by many representatives of the aristocracy. The countess, whose beauty and manner won the sympathy of Venetians, was accused of causing the jealous youth Naumoff to journey from Vienna to Venice and kill the count. The Moscow lawyer, Prihokoff, was indicted for following Naumoff to Venice with the intention of killing him after the count's murder. Both charged the countess with being responsible for the plot and each asserted she had promised to marry him after the count was out of the way.

Count Kamorowsky insured his life for $10,000 in favor of the countess in 1907 and went with her to Vienna after he had promised to marry her.

CHAUTAUQUA MAY BE HELD IN YORK PARK

York Park will be the location of the 1915 Adolphus Chautauqua, if satisfactory arrangements can be made with the city authorities.

Chautauqua promoters figure that the other sites mentioned are not as well located as York Park, and greater interest and better attendance is expected there.

Columbus, O., June 4.—Decision of the supreme court in cases involving the constitutionality of the Vanderhoof conservancy act, was expected soon. It was reported about the court room today. The court plans to begin its summer vacation probably this week, it was said.

Two cases intended to secure a court ruling on the conservancy act are pending. One is that of the county of Miami against the city of Dayton, involving the same questions as the case of Snyder vs. Deeds. The decision on which upheld the law's constitutionality last fall. The first case was brought up on error and the latter on appeal. The other case pending is that of Robert P. Duncan, prosecutor of Franklin county against the Franklin county conservancy directors, intended to test the validity of the provision that counties may prescribe a special tax levy to secure funds for carrying preliminary floor preparation work.

Arrange Program For Annual Memorial

Complete program for the Modern Woodmen of America annual memorial exercises next Sunday afternoon, June 6th, was announced by the committee this afternoon. The exercises will be held at Greenlawn cemetery and Judge Harry Ball will be master of ceremonies.

Members of the camp will assemble at the hall, Third and Chillicothe streets, Sunday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock and march in a body to the cemetery behind the River City band. The line of march extends out Chillicothe to Gallia, then to Waller, Eleventh, Officers and to the cemetery.

FINE RECORDS MADE AT SCHOOL OUTING

The Portsmouth high school outing at Millbrook park Friday afternoon was a success. Fine records were made in several of the events. Charles Evans, Junior class, was first in pole vaulting, making a vault of 7 feet. Alfred Sprocher, Senior, was second, with a vault of 6 feet.

The following four students tied in the high jump at five feet four inches: Glen Edwards, Junior, R. Prince, Jr.; Art Carey, Sophomore; Will Anderson, Sophomore.

Sixteen feet, eight inches was the broad jump made by Will Anderson. He is a Sophomore. Glen Edwards was second with 15 feet, 3 inches, and Will Quinn third with 15 feet. Art Carey, Sophomore, won the 100 yard dash with Harry old Shumway, Freshman, a close second.

Shumway made the 220 yard dash in 26 minutes with George Thomas a close second.

Clifford Zahars, Sophomore, who was the only one in the two mile race, made the distance in 12 minutes and 34 seconds.

Walter Swickert won the quarter mile race, with Bruce Thomas second.

John Simon won the mile race in 5 minutes and 10 seconds. Paul Walker was second.

The 220 yard hurdle race was won by Charles Evans of the Junior class.

Supreme Self-Deception.
In all the mighty domain of self-deception there is nothing quite equal to the wretched self-deception of the man who, after his medical man has told him that 20 drinks of whiskey a day have all but ruined his kidneys, switches to 20 drinks of gin per diem because "he's been told" (says he) that "gin is good for the kidneys."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

ANOTHER VIEW OF MEXICAN MESSAGE.

The Roanoke World-News does not agree with us or any one else in the conclusion that President Wilson's note to Mexico forebodes a more vigorous policy in regard to Mexican affairs and that failure of the factions to get together will mean intervention. It thinks that the President intends simply to get behind some one leader, if they cannot agree among themselves, recognize him and refuse to sell arms and ammunition to the outsiders, trusting to peace and recognition to bring about peace. Commenting upon this hypothesis, the World-News concludes its article in these words:

"What Mr. Wilson proposes is purely a repetition of the old ideas, the application of a beautiful vision to a hard and cold proposition. It reminds us of a child strumming on a piano. He hits the same note every time in the same monotonous fashion."

DONAHEY AND THE LEGISLATURE.

State Auditor Donahey is a friend of the people. He has put accountants to work to look up unjust and illegal expenditure of money by the legislature and its members. It is high time this was done. The people have been imposed upon by legislatures for years, and they submit to it as a matter of course, never thinking for a moment that this abuse is a canker at the heart of the government. No man can be a good legislator who spends a cent of the people's money dishonestly.

So it is a great public service the state auditor is rendering the people. It has become the prevailing idea that the public treasury is at the mercy of the legislators and there should be no questions asked as to what they have done with it. Thank heaven, we have in the state auditor's office a man who detests this doctrine, and who proposes to resist to the end all unwarranted expenditures. We hope Mr. Donahey will be rigorous and relentless in this matter, for of all pests of a free government a reckless legislature is the worst.

That the legislature should spend several thousands of dollars for sets of the general code for the members thereof is throwing money away; making bonuses to employees are pure donations; paying for long-distance telephone calls with members' houses; buying rugs, pocket knives, hair brushes, combs, flowers, etc., are only a few of the illegal ways of spending the people's money. It is hoped all these will be discovered and a list be made of them, so the people will know how they have been imposed upon; and also, to inform future legislatures of the abuses they should avoid.—Columbus Journal.

WAS FRANCE IN DANGER OF "GERMANIZATION?"

The more thoughtful among the French people, says ex-Senator Beveridge in the American Review of Reviews for June, believed before the war that their country was already being "Germanized."

"German workmen have steadily been taking the place of French laborers, here in Paris," said one of the most dependable of this class. "German business men were rooting out French business men. The Germans were even buying up our land. This has been going on all over France," he continued. "And with them, these multitudes of Germans brought their industrial methods, their ideals of life, their so-called 'Kultur.' It is a fact that if this had gone on, it would not have been a great many years until they would have taken France."

This statement was so astounding that careful inquiry was made as to its accuracy. Without a single exception, it was confirmed by those questioned concerning it. "It is quite true," said an American friend of thirty years' standing, who is one of the best-informed men in the country, and whose conservative reliability and cautious understatement are his principal characteristics. "It is quite true," he testified. "For example, many of the largest dressmaking establishments, which American women suppose to be French, are in reality owned by Germans."

A foreign business man, manager of a large plant in a certain part of the Republic, testified that "the Germans were taking France in an industrial and a business way." Asked as to how this was possible, he explained, from his own experience, that it was due to the infinite pains the Germans took to supply just what their customers or clients desired, their patient labor, and prudent foresight.

And so Governor Willis is going on a special train junket to the exposition at San Francisco. Well, probably it would meet with the unanimous approval of the Hon. Jack Arnold, lieutenant governor, if somebody would pay the governor to keep on a perpetual junket and stay outside of the state of Ohio for the next eighteen months. "Jack" could then make hay for his vice presidential boom while the governor junkets.

WHEN PATIENCE HAS CEASED TO BE A VIRTUE.

Judging from only mild expressions of regret from the Ohio State Federation of Labor officials over the way in which their legislative agents were kicked and booed around by the late unlamented legislature, future legislatures might be justified in concluding that the strong arm method was the proper one so far as labor legislation is concerned.

James Walsh, wealthy club man of Baltimore, a jag and an automobile, ran over a woman and killed her, the other day. Now Walsh, minus the jag and the automobile, is on his way to the penitentiary to serve a two years sentence. That is right. Reckless automobile driving must be stopped and prison bars is the most effective way to do it.

We do not take much stock in this talk of referendum of laws passed by the recent legislature. It looks better sense to us to reserve the ammunition until next year when the laws are in actual operation. Then we can see what their effect has been and how they compare with the laws they succeeded.

It is most shocking in these days of the peaceful primary and the rule of the plain people to hear that the Republican leaders have been foregathered in order to pick out a ticket for the voters of their faith to approve at the coming primary.

Over the grapevine comes the news from Ironton that Judge E. E. Corn is grooming himself for the congressional seat in the new Tenth district now filled by Hon. Robert M. Switzer. Corn is congressional timber all right, but just wait until the Scioto county Mohawks trot out their champion. Then will the welkie ring as it never rung before.

Then again, the president may have figured it out that our army and navy may stand in need of a little unmaneuvering and expanding and training so as to be in a state of preparedness for eventualities in our European complications. And that is where the Mexican situation comes in handy. See?

That new telephone directory of the Home Telephone Company has such a pretty and artistic back on it that we are constantly on the verge of packing it home as an ornament and addition to our library.

We have a consuming curiosity to know just exactly what Congressman Charlie Kearns thinks in his inmost heart and soul about this new gerrymander his friends from Scioto perpetrated.

Rebuked
He was deeply in love with his wife, but awfully careless about money matters. He started away on a long business trip, leaving her short of money, and promising to send her a check—which he forgot to do. The rent came due and she telegraphed:
"Dead broke. Landlord insistent. Wire me money."
Her husband answered:
"Am short myself. Will send check in few days. A thousand kisses."

Exasperated, his wife replied:
"Never mind money. I gave landlord one of the kisses. He was more than satisfied."—New York Times.

Where Ignorance Is Bliss, Etc.
A woman came in to the general store with a jar of butter. She desired to exchange it for another jar of butter. In churning, she explained, she had discovered a mouse in the churn.

"It didn't injure the butter," she said to the storekeeper, "and to any one who did not know the circumstances it would taste all right."

Taking the woman at her word, the merchant carried her jar into the back room, transferred her butter to another jar, and the gratified customer took back her mouse butter with a thousand thanks for the accommodation.

New York, June 4.—The White Rats are going to scamper clear to the Pacific Coast in June. A special train bearing 100 singers, dancers, and actors will go on the trip. The round trip will take eighteen days and the party will come back without playing. They will just frolic home.

The White Rats is the vaudeville organization and the proceeds of the trip will go toward helping the theatrical folk who have gone through the most disastrous year on record. Many of the vaudeville folk especially have suffered though you would never know it to see them sunning themselves on Broadway.

J. J. Rosenthal is going ahead of the show and notify the people to look out for the elephant. Included in the party will be Nora Bayes, Frank Fogarty, Grace La Rue, John and Emma Ray, Will Rogers and Billy B. Van. They expect to have the time of their lives.

While Mayor Mitchell is in the West hunting grizzlies the lid has been taken off the Tenderloin. This is the information that comes from no less an authority than Val O'Farrell, the former Forty-Second Street detective, who knows New York and its ways as no other.

He says there never have been more outrageously indecent conditions. On the roofs there are forty to fifty girls, half naked, walking over glass bridges from beneath which diners gaze up at them as they dance the muscle and other Oriental dances.

It has been learned that in most of these places the waiters have telephone lists, and will supply you with table companions, blonde or brunette, very young, young, or mature, as one may wish. In some of the cabarets you see bunches of French maqueroux applauding songs in French that none but an expert in the French vernacular can understand—but they are said to be all to the tobacco.

"Beautiful?" he replied. "Indeed they are—both of them."

"Well," said a sympathetic friend to John J. McGraw at the Polo Grounds, "it can't rain forever."

"No," McGraw admitted. "that is true. Eventually it will snow."

LITTLE GIRL CRYING FOR HER PAPA, JEROME E. HARDON

Up in Detroit, Mich., there is a pretty and sweet little girl, who is incessantly crying for her daddy, who is supposed to be in Portsmouth.

Such at least is the word that reaches the police from Mrs. Gertrude Hardon, who signs herself as a broken-hearted wife and mother. She writes that her husband, Jerome Edward Hardon, has been missing since December 23rd. She has since understood that he went to Ohio and obtained a position. He was formerly in the garage business and is also a credit man and hook-keeper. He is described as 34 years of age, 190 to 175 pounds, 5 ft. 8 1/2 inches tall, blue eyes, dark complexion, heavy dark brown hair, extremely neat and well-mannered and presents a very prosperous appearance. He is thought to have taken a position as a jitney bus driver.

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

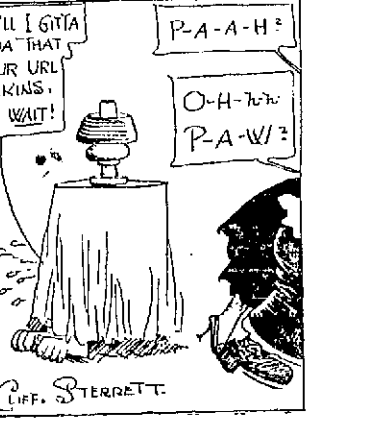

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from pure acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water, drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 80. Residence A-576.

Dear Dolly—Will they celebrate the Fourth of July on Saturday or Monday?

WANT-TO-KNOW.

On Monday.

Dear Dolly—I am keeping company with a nice young man, and I have every reason to believe that he has serious intentions. Now, Dolly, I am just going with this man for pasture and also have other friends on the nights he does not call. The other boys know I go with him, but as he is harmless, they do not object. Am I doing right or wrong in deceiving this man?

BROWN EYES.

If a girl is not engaged to a man there is no reason why she should not have other friends call on her. However, don't let the man you refer to believe you are devoting your entire time and attention to him when you are not. Play fair and square, Brown Eyes.

Dear Dolly—Please give us the names of all the National holidays. We had an argument about them and want to see who is right.

THE BUNCH.

There is no national holiday, not even the Fourth of July. Congress has at various times appointed special holidays, but these provisions provided only for the District of Columbia. The proclamation of the president designating a day of thanksgiving only makes it a legal holiday in the District of Columbia.

Dear Dolly—What are the requirements for an ideal married life? I mean should a husband and wife have the same likes and dislikes or should they be just the opposite? The girl I am engaged to doesn't agree with me on anything. She is so contrary I don't know what to do. If I say I like a thing she will ridicule it and say all sorts of things about me for not knowing any better and having such poor taste, etc. She told a friend she just did those things to relieve the monotony and make life interesting. I rather think things would be more than interesting were I to marry a girl like that, don't you, Dolly. We can't sit down on an evening and carry on an interesting conversation like we ought to, cause neither of us know what to say. When we are not quarreling we are holding hands. Do you think we could be happy married, or should I break the engagement?

A YOUNG MAN.

Before you become engaged you should be perfectly sure that your tastes are near enough alike that you are going to be able to enjoy things together. I don't think the fact that you found nothing to talk about is any index to the way things will be after you are married and in your own home. Naturally, married life is not a question of holding hands, and saying complimentary things to each other all the time, but if there is the right kind of relationship you are not going to "bore" each other. With marriages comes a blending of interests which you cannot possibly have now. If you are wise people, you will find an interest in some extraneous subject. Nothing brings a man and woman closer to each other, mentally, than reading together—it gives them a bond of information, and forms a basis for intellectual discussion.

So many people do not seem to consider that the long years of married life are made up of many things besides the periscope of courtship. I don't believe you need consider breaking your engagement, because you will find there are many things to talk about after you are wedded.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please reprint the receipt you had in your column some time ago for weak eyes? Please tell also how to use it.

A READER.

Boric acid is the best thing I know of for tired and weak eyes. Take about half teaspoon to a glass of water. Boil the water before using. Then pour on powder while hot. As soon as cool put in clean bottle or jelly glass and keep covered. Drop in eyes two or three times a day with eye dropper. If there is anything serious wrong with your eyes better consult an oculist at once.

Dear Dolly—People tell me my little five-year-old son has adenoids and I should have them removed, what do you say. I have a perfect horror of operations and am afraid it would kill the dear to have them cut out. Please advise me.

WORRIED MOTHER. If the child has adenoids removed, as they often impair a child's health and intelligence. However don't go on what people say. Take your little son to your family physician and ask his advice.

The chancel was beautiful with an attractive arrangement of scarlet roses, mingling with the green. The balconies were decorated with festoons of green with Japanese lanterns, adding to the pretty effect to make it appear as an out-of-door affair, as it had been arranged to have the music on the lawn at the P. E. Selby home, and on account of the damp weather the church was used. The program was well presented, each of the numbers receiving hearty applause. The program was presented as follows:

Duet, O That We Two Were Maying (Nevin)—Miss Berry, Mr. Burkel.

Solo—Impatience (Schubert)—Miss Anderson.

Violin Hungarian Dance (Hoesche)—Miss White.

An unassuming, but beautiful wedding took place Thursday afternoon, at 2:30, at the pleasant South End home of Editor and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, of Waverly.

At that hour Dr. J. C. Jackson, of Chillicothe, recited the ceremony that united in marriage Miss Clara, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, to Mr. John L. Joy, of Detroit.

Some forty guests were present from Detroit, Columbus, Lancaster, Cincinnati, Portsmouth, Washington, C. H., Chillicothe and Jackson.

WHEN YOU WASH YOUR HAIR DON'T USE SOAP

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain mulitised coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Fifteen dollars was the amount realized on the jitney ride given by the Children's Missionary Society of Bigelow church last evening, followed by refreshments on the lawn of the church. Most of the automobiles owned by the members of the church were pressed into service. The ride was limited to 25 minutes for five cents. Several parties were arranged and the affair was very successful and enjoyable. Mr. A. C. Blake, window trimmer at Anderson's store, donated the signs, "Bigelow" for the autos.

WILSON TO SEND NOTE TONIGHT

came known authoritatively that Meyer Gerhardt, who sailed from New York for Copenhagen on the steamer United States with a guarantee of safe conduct obtained by the American government from the allies, is the man.

He is attache of the German consular office and has been in the United States several months representing the German Red Cross. He goes to Berlin to present first hand the views of the American government as Count Von Bernstorff got them from President Wilson. Difficulties of communication through the war zones, the German embassy feels, however, deprived the Berlin foreign office of a full light on the American position. The dispatch of the envoy was the basis of much confidence in German quarters here, where it was believed an understanding on submarine warfare satisfactorily to both Germany and the United States could be evolved. His task, however, is realized as a difficult one because feeling among German officials and people, according to reliable advices here, have been that the American government was seeking to deprive Germany of its chief weapon of offense—the submarine.

Today's cabinet meeting began with all members practically agreed that the United States cannot consider the German reply responsive, and must insist, before the diplomatic correspondence can proceed further, upon an affirmative or negative answer to the principal that the lives of non-combatants cannot lawfully be imperiled on the high seas but must be transferred to safety before a legitimate prize is destroyed.

The purpose of the United States is to keep its rejoinder on the same plane as the note of May 13—to ascertain definitely whether Germany will be guided by the principles of war and humanity. Should a negative answer be received diplomatic relations, it generally is believed, could not be continued. An affirmative reply would be in the nature of a guarantee against further violations of American rights in the war zone and would make possible a discussion of the facts in individual cases that have occurred.

the Danester with Lemberg presumably as their objective, seeking to avoid the great marshes to the west. It is reported that some of these forces already have reached the Danester line near Mikolajow, with Lemberg only about 25 miles away.

To the north of Przemyśl General Von Mackensen is now safe, having dared to essay to drive a wedge between the Russian armies on the lower San and the fortress and made good. It was a risky move, and knowing its peril British observers have been watching it with keen interest. For a week they have been expressing hopes it would fail. But it did not fail and now General Mackensen has a breathing spell and can elect either to stand where he is or to push forward from a base of great strategic advantage.

No one can predict whether the Austro-Germans will continue their terrific offensive in the east, such as preceded the taking of Przemyśl.

But viewing the complacency with which the Germans have accepted punishment in the past in order to achieve their aims, the belief here is that they have set their heart upon Lemberg and that they will not for some time to come be content to assume the defensive.

Some commentators on the military situation are suggesting today that the allies in the west will now initiate an offensive movement in hope of relieving the pressure on the Russians but on the other hand it is noticeable that during the Austro-German rush into Galicia there was no synchronizing allied movement in the west and it would be no surprise if the Germans themselves should begin a serious offensive move-

Berlin, June 4 (via London).—The jubilation throughout Germany and Austria-Hungary over the fall of Przemyśl is mingled with surprise at the speed with which the campaign against the stronghold was brought to successful end.

Vienna, Prague and Budapest all have witnessed scenes of the wildest rejoicing over the latest victory in Galicia. Like Berlin, these three cities are bedecked with flags. Thousands of persons fill the streets, alternately singing the German and Austrian national anthems.

Almost all the expert observers in Berlin expected a stubborn resistance on the part of the Russian forces in Przemyśl. Furthermore, conditions within the stronghold show that the Russians were looking forward to a long siege and that they had endeavored to prepare for it. A correspondent of the Vossische-Zeitung says the Russians had brought reinforcements into Przemyśl from Lemberg and heavy artillery and ammunition from Lublin over the new strategic railroad. Lvograd and Brest-Litovsk also were called upon to supply needed materials and everything was rushed in and set up with feverish haste. The middle forts were used to this end and the Jewish population was compelled to evacuate the city.

Siege operations on the part of the Austrian and German forces were necessary because the Russians, during their two months occupation had in a measure restored the fortifications.

Continuing the Vossische Zeitung's correspondent says the artillery attack reached its climax Sunday when the forts were literally sprayed with shells. The moment the German commanders noticed a shakening of the Russian fire, storming operations were begun. The Russians defended themselves until the last moment. They had no time to secure any guns or material. In an editorial article the Vossische Zeitung declares that the Russian menace in Austria-Hungary has been broken forever and that Russia has been deprived of its dearest wish, the possession of Galicia, which was to have become a new Russia. Other papers hail the fall of Przemyśl as an indication of the end of the Russian domination over Galicia and proof of eventual victory everywhere. They are particularly gratified that the stronghold fell before the Austro-German attack in fewer days than it took the Russians months to capture it.

SUIT TO DISSOLVE LOCAL BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL TO BE HEARD NEXT FRIDAY

Definite assignment of the date of the hearing of the suit for permanent dissolution of the Building Trades Council and for permanent injunction restraining the members from interfering with the employers of labor, filed Thursday afternoon by Attorneys Blair and Kimble, will be made by Judge Stephenson in common pleas court next Friday morning.

Counsel for both sides agreed to the arrangement this morning in common pleas court and Judge Stephenson approved it. He will return to assign the case.

Chief Justice Nichols will be asked to assign a special judge to hear the case, since neither Judge Thomas nor Judge Stephenson will be available. Judge Thomas is attending the Panama Exposition and Judge Stephenson is scheduled to hold court in Gallia county for two weeks, beginning one week from next Monday.

Judge Blair, for the plaintiffs, in presenting the preliminary argument in the case this morning requested an early trial, mentioning next Monday or Tuesday as a good time. He argued that the case was of sufficient importance to warrant a hearing that early.

Attorney Edgar Miller, representing the defendants, demurred to the plan on the ground that it was unfair to expect the defendants to be ready for trial. He insisted that the prayer of the plaintiffs struck to the very root of labor organizations, and that considerable time would be required to delve into the law covering the case. He also called attention to the fact that there had been no printing or disorder, and that there was no special reason for an unreasonable basis. In this connection, he stated that the chief counsel for the defendants, Nicholas Klein, could not be here until next Tuesday and would not be prepared, not having seen the petition.

Judge Stephenson stated that Mr. Miller's arguments were well taken and that it would not be fair proceeding to rush the case to such an early trial.

After friendly discussion between counsel, it was decided to have the case assigned for hearing next Friday morning. Judge Blair consented on the condition that none of the alleged unlawful acts named in the petition would be committed in the interim. Mr. Miller said that he would advise his clients to avoid all indications of boycotting or intimidation and that he was confident that nothing of that nature would be done.

Before concluding his statements to the court Judge Blair said that his clients wanted to be fair with the defendants and that if no unreasonable delay was attempted they would not insist upon recovering damages for losses sustained in their business. But in reply to Mr. Miller's statement that no intimidation was going on he cited an alleged instance which occurred yesterday, when a customer of one of his clients was harassed all day through personal visits and telephone calls because he employed one of the plaintiffs to do some work. He said the man was threatened with loss of business, boycott and other methods alleged in the petition.

Judge Blair said that a continuation of this line of alleged coercion would lead to damage suits and more drastic legal action than has already been started.

Sheriff Smith reported that ten of the sixteen defendants had been served personally, five at their regular places of business and one could not be located, having left the city. The majority of them were in the court room which was well filled with spectators.

Determined effort will be made by the members of the Building Trades Council and its auxiliary bodies in contesting the suit for permanent injunction and dissolution of the Council, filed late Thursday afternoon by Attorneys Blair and Kimble, representing a number of the local firms employing labor.

Attorney Edgar Miller of this city was engaged Thursday evening to represent the defendants at the hearing of the application for temporary injunction in common pleas court this morning. Attorney Nicholas Klein, of Cincinnati, who was here about three weeks ago to advise the journeymen plumbers relative to their controversy with the master plumbers, which has brought on the suit, was notified by telephone Thursday evening of the latest turn in affairs, and sent word that he would arrive in Portsmouth next Tuesday to make arrangements to contest the application for a permanent injunction and permanent dissolution of the Council.

Until his arrival nothing will be done by the defendants to contest the action. The plan of defense will be decided upon at a conference to be held between Mr. Klein and the officers of the union organizations soon after his arrival.

Harry Strong, business agent of the Building Trades Council, stated Thursday evening that there was nothing to give out on the defendants' side of the case, as they preferred to await the arrival of Mr. Klein before discussing it for publication. He said, however, that no trouble would be experienced in showing that the major portion of the allegations of the plaintiffs' petition of conspiracy and unlawful combination could not be substantiated in court. He also stated that the defendants expected the filing of the suit and were not at all surprised when it was filed.

All of the defendants who could be located were served Thursday evening by Sheriff Smith and Deputy Sheriff Arthur with summons to appear in court this morning at nine o'clock.

The suit is the biggest sensation in years in local union labor circles, and owing to its nature, has a far reaching effect. The legality of the Building Trades Councils all over the state are put in question, and the outcome of the suit will be watched with interest all over the country.

PORTSMOUTH BLANKED, MILLS HAS LEG BROKEN

Local Catcher Was Cut Down At Plate, Score Was 3 To 0

Why Not Insure Catchers?

It would not be a bad idea for the management of the Portsmouth team to take out accident insurance policies on their catchers as they seem to be the first players who are put out of the game through a serious injury. Nick Francisco, who was recalled that Nick Francisco catcher on last year's team had his ankle broken in a game played in Millbrook park. After a two weeks' stay at the Hempstead hospital here Francisco left for his home in Columbus, Me. was out of the game for quite awhile. No sooner did Nick return to the game than he suffered a broken finger in a game played in Charleston. Evidently it would not be a bad idea for the local club to protect its catchers from accidents that break into every baseball camp and this step may be taken.

CARLISLE INDIANS PLAY AT MILLBROOK SUNDAY

The famous Carlisle Indians will play the All Professionals at Millbrook park Sunday and the game will not doubt attract hundreds of fans to the local park.

The Indians as an added feature will give a square dance before the game and a square will pitch three innings. Portsmouth will put a strong team against the Red Skins and a real ball game can be looked for. Play will begin at three bells.

The Indians will line up as follows: Seymour, R.; Uhlendorf, 2b; Coons, cf; Wallis, 3b; Island, ss; Main, 1b; Nolan, rf; Wollman, c; Rodgers, p; Garber, p; Negake, p; Chateau, p; Princess, p.

The record of this club in 1903 was, won 103, lost 54, and in 1914, won 130, lost 55 games, which is a good record. The club carries two catchers and four pitchers, so as to always be in good shape to give a good account of themselves on the field. Watch their catching in their own native tongue, another added feature of the game.

NAILERS ARE BEATEN

Chillicothe, June 4.—The locals took a close game from Trenton here Thursday afternoon, score 3 to 2. Both pitchers worked well and kept their hits scattered while a slip in the Nailer's machine in the third inning helped the Babes put over the win. The score, by innings: Chillicothe, 0, 1, 0, 2, 0, 0, 3, 7, 1; Trenton, 0, 1, 0, 0, 1, 0, 0, 2, 6. Batters: Brockley and DeBerry; Higgins and Haddock.

AH, FRANKFORT WINS AGAIN

Frankfort, Ky., June 4.—The home team defeated the Charleston Senators here Thursday afternoon by a score of 3 to 2. It was a well played game. In the fifth a fumble and three hits netted the "Frankforters" three runs. Score by innings: Charleston, 0, 1, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 2; Frankfort, 0, 0, 0, 1, 0, 0, 0, 3. Earned runs: Charleston 2; Frankfort 1. Two-base hits: Coffinhammer, Hudson. Base on balls—Off: Charleston 7; Frankfort 5. Struck Out—By Coffinhammer 5; by Gordon 5; by Coffinhammer 3; by Hudson 3. Umpire—Gordon.

Soft For Willard

It begins to look like Jesse Willard, heavyweight champion and Jim Coffey will be matched to fight ten rounds in New York next September. Willard has been guaranteed a purse of $18,000 if he will step into the ring with Coffey.

FANS SHOCKED TO LEARN OF CATCHER MILLS' ACCIDENT

The regrettable accident that befell Catcher Mills at Lexington Thursday afternoon cast a pall of gloom over local fandom. Mills was rapidly getting into his stride and had been of inestimable value to the team. Willing and anxious at all times he has jumped into popular favor and there was not a fan in the city, but what expressed the deepest sympathy for the splendid all-round backstop when it was learned that he had suffered a leg fracture. It is certainly a piece of the toughest kind of luck that has stalked unbidden into the local baseball camp.

President Gableman and Vice President Wm. Zollmann were greatly distressed upon receipt of the news of the serious accident, which Mills met with. It is the first accident of any consequence that has taken place in the league since the season opened. Mills came to the local club from the Cleveland A. A. team and this is his first year in professional ranks. He is only 20 years old.

MAY DISPENSE WITH THREE PLAYER LIMIT RULE SUNDAY

There is a possibility of the three experienced player limit now being respected by Ohio State league teams being rescinded.

A meeting to discuss its possible elimination will be held in the Hotel of Cincinnati next Sunday.

President Gableman received this information Friday from President Joseph F. Carr of the league.

All managers and club owners will attend and other matters affecting the welfare of the league will come up for consideration.

The Charleston club wants to rebuild its team and has asked for the elimination of the rule that prevents any of the teams from having more than three players on the pay roll, who has had more than a year's experience.

The Charleston Gazette says: "The Senators are now in the midst of a battle and are playing with a hoodoo following the club that it seems impossible to beat. Yesterday's loss to the Frankfort club, making it the third win for the Kentucky capital city bunch, showed that there was something materially wrong with the local club. Coffinhammer allowed but five hits, while his opponent was touched for eight, safeties, still the local squad failed to bunch their hits as did the others, and the result was a lost game."

The managers and backers of the Charleston club, since the season began, have played strictly within the league rule by using only three experienced players on the pay roll. Other clubs in the circuit have ignored this rule completely and have been using four and in some instances five and six players who have played professional ball before.

BASEBALL REDS BEAT THE CARDINALS

The Reds came back and took a crack at the St. Louis Nationals Thursday, winning 5 to 2. Pete Schneider pitched a well game and the Cardinals never had a look in. The score: St. Louis, 5; Cardinals, 2.

Fans who have seen Ty Cobb in action this season declare the Georgia Peach is faster than ever. If the Detroit pitcher holds up the "Peach" is going to be a real pennant contender in the American League.

Not Out Of School

Pitcher Park, who blanked Portsmouth so handily Thursday is a college boy and he will not leave school until June 11. He has been a big help to Manager Guyn of the Colts and is evidently a smart young hurler. He recently beat the Babes, and let them down with four hits.

Club Quits Cold

Carlisle, June 4.—The Buckeye league baseball team of this city disbanded today and no longer will take part in the league schedule, according to Manager Billy Prout.

Fred Paige, holder of the club franchise, disappeared Sunday night, leaving behind him several unpaid bills, including players' salaries. According to Manager Prout, it was hoped that the league President Lawson would put the team on the road for the games of the immediate future, but, according to word received here, sufficient backing could not be secured. Several of the players have signed with semi-professional teams here.

Down in Cincinnati about the only visitor who is delivering the real goods for the local team is Dale. A couple of the former star hurlers of the Reds appear to be about ready for the discard and it is to be regretted that they haven't a few more days lying around loose.

THIMMES JOINS THE LOCAL CLUB

Catcher Thimmes, a local boy who can throw the old ball around and hit cleverly left Friday morning to join the Portsmouth team in Lexington.

Thimmes will go to the outfield and for the present Dillhoefer will do all the catching for the locals as Mills will be out of the game many weeks.

Mellory will take one of the outfield positions. In case of an injury to Dillhoefer Thimmes can go behind the bat and catch a swell game of ball. He was a member of Doyle's school this spring and showed real class.

LOCALS DREW MOST MONEY

As usual Portsmouth led all the towns in the Ohio State league when it came to drawing big crowds on Decoration Day.

The receipts of the various cities were as follows: Portsmouth $248.55, Trenton $215.40 and Chillicothe $137.45. As the receipts were pooled each club received as its share $108.18.

COBB AFTER NEW HONOR

Ty Cobb is after another record now—champion of the walkway league. At present he ranks first in this respect with 37 passes. Eddie Collins is second with 35 and Double Bush third with 31. Cobb's high mark for passes is 58, made in 1913. Cobb has drawn passes in 22 games. Collins in 21. The Georgia Peach has traded three times in each of nine, and once in each of ten.

BASEBALL PHRASES TOUCHED OUT

What's The Trouble?

What happened to the New York Giants? What's the question puzzling the baseball experts. On July 1 last season the Giants, with three pennant years back of them, were above .500, still playing the best ball in the National league. And then suddenly, without any warning, the collapse arrived. From July to October the Giants staggered along below a .350 clip. McGraw lined up some new men to offset this for 1915, yet at the end of six weeks the Gotham club has been utterly unable to win half its games.

PORTSMOUTH MAY GET MACHINE GUN COMP'Y

A movement is under way to organize a machine gun company in Portsmouth to be attached to one of the Ohio National Guard infantry regiments.

Assistant Adjutant General Benjamin Hough was in Washington, D. C. some days ago conferring with the officers in charge of the division of militia affairs of the war department relative to forming machine gun companies for the Ohio state militia. The war department officials assured him that they would furnish the state with the required number of machine guns. The wonderful success and results of machine guns in the present big European conflict have spurred the Washington government officials towards improving this arm of service in the American army and militia.

It is proposed to form eight such companies in Ohio with four guns each or a total of 32 guns, one company to be attached to each infantry regiment. It is expected to have the companies complete about 50 men in number.

A local former U. S. army officer who has had considerable experience in the handling of machine guns and other local army veterans are behind the movement to secure one of the companies for Portsmouth.

Shattered Is Love's Dream Of 12 Year Old Lassie

Love's sweet dream of Anna Stevens, a 12-year-old school girl in short dresses, was rudely shattered by the police officials Friday morning.

Anna appears to be infatuated with Jake Hill, youngest son of Mrs. Sarah Jane Hill-Higgins. She says she is in earnest in loving him so intensely that she wants to quit school to marry him.

Both Hill and the girl were taken into custody and will be turned over to Judge T. C. Beatty of the juvenile court to be dealt with, the officials impressing upon the would-be child bride that she must continue attending school, that Hill is unworthy of her and unable to properly support himself.

Asked what it was about Hill that appealed to her so strongly the little girl said it was his kind way of talking to her. She was then reminded that Jake was a past master in the exhorting business as he had frequently demonstrated by his dramatic outbursts in police court time and again.

Word had reached the police that Hill had been seen on the river bank a few evenings ago caressing the girl and this precipitated a fight between him and some friends of the girl, who is a daughter of Tom Stevens, of Mill street, the man who got into the limelight some months ago by shunning an infatuation with a sister-in-law and writing love letters to her in order to get rid of his wife Bertha Stevens. They afterwards became reconciled.

Anna appears to be a neat and rather well-mannered child. She attends the Union street school and told the officials that she has been going to school regularly since she was six years of age.

How French People Cure Stomach Trouble

A household remedy of the French peasantry, consisting of pure vegetable oil, and said to possess wonderful merit in the treatment of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles, has been introduced in this county by George H. Mayr, who for twenty years has been one of the leading down-town druggists of Chicago and who himself was cured by its use. So quick and effective is its action that a single dose is usually enough to bring pronounced relief in the most stubborn cases, and many people who have tried it declare they never heard of anything to produce such remarkable results in so short a time. It is known as Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and can now be had at all leading drug stores. It is sold with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question or quibble if ONE bottle fails to give you absolute satisfaction.

HIGH YALLER IS STILL FREE

Detectives and police officers are now busily engaged in their hunt of Henry Glenn, alias "High Yaller," alleged gunman in the Baucus murder case.

The sleuths are hopeful that they will eventually capture their man. It is understood that one of the trailing officers had practically gotten his hands on "High Yaller," only to permit him to escape again. Chief W. T. McCarty, believing that to lay low for a few days might bring about desired results, is refusing to give out any information regarding new developments in the man-hunt.

Young People To Fight For "Drys"

This organization is for the purpose of enlisting every young man and woman above the age of fourteen for active service in the coming temperance campaign. A committee was appointed to arrange for a social meeting to be held in two weeks, also to decide upon the literature needed. The next regular meeting will be held at the Y. W. C. A. on Thursday June 10 at 7:30. Every young man and woman in the city who is interested in temperance organization is invited to be present at that meeting. Any one who believes there is need of an organization among the young people of all churches and those who do not belong to any church come to this meeting and give us a boost in getting started. We want to make this one of the largest and best young people's organization in the city.

To The Public

It is well known and also conceded that from a commercial standpoint advertisers are not only allowed, but they take a very wide latitude in phrasing their advertisements, so much so that the public are justly suspicious of some advertising as not being just all it pretends to be.

Mr. J. P. Purdum has given me no latitude as to phrasing and prices, but insists that this stock be turned into cash.

With the cumulative conditions now existing THE EAST END FURNITURE CO. is up against a very serious proposition, therefore we will say that we have some furniture that we will sell at cost and less than cost, some that we will sell at cost and handling and for all of the balance of stock we will for 30 days (subject to recession by us within that time) sell at absolute cost and 10 per cent added for handling.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Don't look old! Try Grandmother's recipe to darken and beautify faded, lifeless hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wiry and sagging, just as an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyleth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyleth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

Safety Sign

The city officials have concluded that the increasing number of automobile using Front street make the opening in the flood wall at Front and Chillicothe streets a dangerous point for accidents. Splendid Program For Children's Day

The Children's Day exercises to be held at the First Christian church Sunday promise to be attended by a large and happy crowd. Mrs. C. M. Howland, who has had charge of the preparation of the program, states that the exercises will be without a doubt the best ever given at the church. She says the youngsters have their parts down to perfection and that the program will be rendered without the least slip or jar. The church will be appropriately decorated for the occasion and provisions have been made to entertain a crowd of 1200 at the Bible study hour. The exercises will be repeated in the evening when a silver offering will be taken at the door. This offering will go towards help swelling the foreign Christian Missionary fund, for the Bible school hopes to raise $600.00 on that day, which will make the church a "living link." Rev. Oakley is sanguine that the people will not fail on that day in the matter of contributions. The following program will be rendered by the children:

Says Court Failed To Touch All Points

Philadelphia, June 4.—An inspection of the text of the opinions filed in the federal courts at Trenton, N. J., and in this city yesterday in the United States Steel Corporation suit which became available today shows that the court did not touch upon all subjects in the government's complaint. One of the allegations of the government not dwelt upon was that the syndicate which prompted the steel corporation had received exorbitant fees for organizing the concern.

The opinion of the senior judge in the case stated there were so many questions, large and small, laid before the court, that it could not give them all a place in the opinion but that it had given adequate attention to the most important phases.

An interesting paragraph in the opinion covered by the abstract given out yesterday by the court touched upon the combinations of of erecting entire villages. The many scenes, people with an immense company garbed in pleasing Spanish costumes, lead a distinct realism to the entire production, and you can safely rely upon this wonderful production as being one of the highest excellence.

First show promptly at 6:30, then at 8 and 9:30.

No advance in price; all seats 10 cents for this great six reel picture and you had better come early.

5c At Temple Theatre

Tonight's program is a Key Bee feature entitled "The Middle of the Wooden Leg." It is a thrilling detective drama, crammed with exciting scenes, full of power, animation and strong, convincing action, coupled with a real heart throbbing story by Gardner Sullivan and played by Leona Hutton, Jack Nelson and Hurley Clark. The third reel is entitled "The Job and the Jewels" and the fourth is our Keystone comedy featuring Mable Norman and Roscoe Arbuckle at the World's Fair.

Mary Fuller At Arcana Theatre Tonight

Mary Fuller, general favorite with Arcana patrons, will be seen at the popular play house tonight in a little skill entitled "The Rustle of a Skirt." This is a one reel comedy drama and Miss Fuller will be seen at her best. In addition to this great feature, Manager Potts has for tonight a two reel comedy drama entitled "The Broken Toy." This is a Universal feature and that in itself is enough to insure its goodness. The Arcana is rapidly growing in favor with theatregoers, for every feature is a headliner and the theatre offers all the comforts afforded by big city houses. And best of all the admission is only five cents, despite the high class of all the attractions.

At The Pastime

With ideal weather prevailing the audiences at the airside in Seaside are growing and interest in the village's only moving picture house is increasing. Excellent shows are being shown, the villagers getting just as good as shown in all larger cities. Tonight's program includes four reels of real high class stuff, "The Phantom on the Hearth" is a two reel drama produced by the Kay Bee people. "His Luckless Love" is a strong Keystone comedy and "Competition" is an admirable American drama. The show is well balanced, varied kinds of entertainment for all. "The Forged Testament" is the two reel headline for Saturday. It is a majestic drama well worth seeing. "Ethel's Doggone Luck" is a Konic comedy that is also breezy. "Joe Harlin's Ward" is a gripping Princess drama.

At The Exhibit

"The Forged Testament" is the two reel dramatic feature at the Exhibit tonight. But do not forget that Renfax musical motion pictures are the real headlines. There are two good musical numbers strikingly illustrated with moving pictures. The big hit tonight will be the song "My Orchard is Short of a French Like You." The other scream is "Bagdad, Turkish Melody." Edith's Doggone Luck" is the comedy. Can you imagine a bigger show for five cents. Four big pictures and orchestra music all for five cents. Shows open every morning at ten o'clock and continue until ten o'clock in the evening.

Tomorrow Sid Chaplin, brother of Charles Chaplin, and considered by many the peer of the Essanay comedian, is being featured in a two reel scream entitled "Gussie's Day of Rest." The picture is one rapid fire round of comedy and is a good cure for the blues. Don't fail to see it.

HUNDREDS GATHER TO WITNESS SPELLING 'BEE'

Columbus, Ohio, June 4.—(Galeries packed to the railings and floor space filled with scores of standing spectators greeted the seventy-five school children who participated in the preliminary spelling contest in the house of representatives chamber today. The chamber had not contained such a large and enthusiastic crowd consisting of parents and teachers of the champion spellers, during the entire time the general assembly was in session.

Governor Willis pronounced the words, taking 100 at random from a list of 5,000 prepared in advance. The children wrote the words sitting in the desks usually occupied by lawmakers. Those who misspelled more than 17 of the 100 words were eliminated from the oral spelling bee held later today at Memorial Hall.

A debate lasting nearly an hour occurred over the question of seating Milton Starr, representing Cuyahoga county. He lives in Summit county, a few rods across the line from Cuyahoga county, where he attends school. A ruling upheld by all county superintendents present that the residence of children should determine what county they should represent, threw him out. The children who participated in the contest then voted unanimously to let him enter the preliminaries as a representative at large. The other Cuyahoga county representative was Daisy Jones, and it was agreed that the one who received the higher grade in the preliminaries should represent Cuyahoga county in the final contest.

Counties not represented in the spelling bee are Hamilton, Fayette, Montgomery, Butler, Warren, Noble, Marion, Geauga, Fulton, Erie, Champaign and Belmont.

15 PER CENT INCREASE IS ANNOUNCED

Bartlesville, Okla., June 4.—An increase of 15 per cent in the wages of the employees of the zinc smelters of Bartlesville was announced today. The raise is due chiefly to the large increase in the demand for zinc since the beginning of hostilities in Europe, smelter men said.

Gives Old Wedding Ring To Patch Up Soldiers' Jaws

Dusseldorf, June 4.—"You don't need to thank me for this. It long ago lost its significance."
The "this" was a woman's wedding ring, worn and scratched. The message was blurred and poorly written. Ring and message, indicating some hidden tragedy that never will be revealed, were sent to Dr. Christian Bruhn, one of Germany's most distinguished dental surgeons, for the furtherance of his present life work—the patching up of soldiers whose jaws and teeth have been shot away.

The patching up process required much gold. Dr. Bruhn's clinic is free, and, thus far at least, unsupported from any official quarter. As his fame has gone out over Germany, however, his gold reserve has increased amazingly. A famous actress has given a heavy medallion, the gift of the ruler of a German state. A noted litterateur has donated a similar gift from the king of Sweden. Wedding rings, seal rings, necklaces, gold coins, from England and from Turkey, even old gold teeth, have poured in on Dr. Bruhn, to be melted up and find their way into the mouths of wounded soldiers.

Men who have viewed war from all angles and who are intimately acquainted with its horrors have declared repeatedly that the worst part of it is in the hospitals. The orthopedic institutions, where the soldiers are painstakingly made new again so that they may go back to the front, are infinitely depressing.

REAL ESTATE GIVEN TO CHARITY TAXABLE

Columbus, Ohio, June 4.—The supreme court decided today that real estate used so the proceeds is devoted to educational and charitable purposes, is taxable, but personal property devoted to the same use is not taxable.

This decision affirms that of the circuit court of Cuyahoga county in the case in which the Benjamin Rose Institute sought an injunction to prevent George E. Meyers, treasurer of Cuyahoga county, from collecting taxes on real and personal property of the institute. This decision will affect the statutes of a number of private endowments of educational and charitable institutions.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotics, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of doing opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly deprecated, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

nothing to do with starting the fire aboard the steamship La Touraine, a charge which led to his arrest.

While there is no strong evidence against Swoboda, Major Julianus has decided to continue his inquiry at all places in France where Swoboda is known to have stayed, before ordering his release.

New York, June 4.—An export shipment of live cattle, said to be the first made to the European war zone, was in progress today at Jersey City, where more than 1,100 head of cattle were being loaded on the steamship Shenandoah for Bordeaux, France.

They will be slaughtered in France and the meat will be sent to the front for the use of the French army. The cattle were brought from Chicago and the Middle-west. For several months it has been almost impossible to ship live cattle through Jersey City, owing to the prevalence of foot and mouth disease. With the approach of summer it became necessary to ship cattle on the hoof instead of dressed beef.

Curing Catarrh is A Simple Method

Go to its Source and the Cure Is Then Accomplished.

Only those who have used S. S. S. for the blood know that catarrh is simply a blood trouble.

Most people, uneducated in this membrane disease, treat their nose and throat as if catarrh was a local trouble. It is not so. To treat catarrh it is necessary to go into the stomach, the liver, the lungs, the kidneys and all the vital organs of the body. And it is S. S. S. that at once enters the entire blood circulation, all the organs of the body, all the mucous membranes, and becomes a dominant factor for renewed health. It is a simple method when you figure it out. Catarrh is plainly an inflammation of the mucous membranes.

And there is in S. S. S. certain ingredients which cause these mucous surfaces to change or convert their secretions into a substance for easy elimination. A special book on this subject will be mailed to all who write to The Swift Specific Co., 110 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Catarrh is very often the result of some other blood trouble, some germ that gets into the blood and multiplies beyond the control of nature. S. S. S. is the remedy. Do not accept a substitute for this priceless remedy. Read the circular wrapped around the bottle. It is important.

PORTUGAL ON THE BRINK OF WAR

PRESS DEMANDS ITS RULER END RELATIONS WITH GERMAN EMPIRE

Lisbon, June 4 (via Paris)---Protesting vehemently against the sinking of two Portuguese ships by German submarines the press of Portugal demands that the government immediately sever diplomatic relations with Germany.

GERMANY JUBILANT AS PRZEMYSL FALLS

Berlin, June 4 (via London)---The jubilation throughout Germany and Austria-Hungary over the fall of Przemyśl is mingled with surprise at the speed with which the campaign against the stronghold was brought to successful end.

Vienna, Prague and Budapest all have witnessed scenes of the wildest rejoicing over the latest victory in Galicia. Like Berlin, these three cities are bedecked with flags. Thousands of persons fill the streets, alternately singing the German and Austrian national anthems.

Almost all the expert observers in Berlin expected a stubborn resistance on the part of the Russian forces in Przemyśl. Furthermore, conditions within the stronghold show that the Russians were looking forward to a long siege and that they had endeavored to prepare for it. A correspondent of the Vossische Zeitung says the Russians had brought reinforcements into Przemyśl from Lemberg and heavy artillery and ammunition from Lublin over the new strategic railroad. Ivanovo and Brest-Litovsk also were called upon to supply needed munitions and everything was rushed to and set up with feverish haste. The middle facts were used to this end and the Jewish population was compelled to evacuate the city.

Siege operations on the part of the Austrian and German forces were necessary because the Russians, during their two months occupation had in a measure restored the fortifications.

Continuing the Vossische Zeitung's correspondent says the artillery attack reached its climax Sunday when the forts were literally smothered with shells. The moment the German commanders noticed a slackening of the Russian fire, storming operations were begun.

The Russians defended themselves until the last moment. They had no time to secure any guns or material. In an editorial article the Vossische Zeitung declares that the Russian menace in Austria-Hungary has been broken forever and that Russia has been deprived of its dearest wish, the possession of Galicia, which was to have become a new Russia. Other papers hail the fall of Przemyśl as an indication of the end of the Russian dominion over Galicia and proof of eventual victory everywhere. They are particularly gratified that the stronghold fell before the Austro-German attack in fewer days than it took the Russians months to capture it.

CREW OF SCHOONER LANDED

London, June 4---(9 a. m.)---The crew of the Danish timber schooner Salvador, which was sunk by a submarine Wednesday night, landed yesterday at Lerwick, Scotland. After ordering the schooner's crew into boats, the submarine set fire to the vessel and also shot away the stern with two shells. The crew had been adrift for twelve hours when picked up by a trawler.

15 PER CENT INCREASE IS ANNOUNCED

Bartlesville, Okla., June 4---An increase of 15 percent in the wages of the employees of the zinc smelters of Bartlesville was announced today. The raise is due, chiefly, to the large increase in the demand for zinc since the beginning of hostilities in Europe, smelter men said.

Tobacco Damaged

Albert Pyles, a well known Friendship farmer, who was in the city Thursday reported that the big rainstorm of a few nights ago, did considerable damage to tobacco fields in that section.

These who drive automobiles, rack their brains over railroad crossings. When approaching a railroad crossing, please stop, look and listen. We are doing our part. Won't you do yours?

Most of the grade crossing accidents take place on Sunday, when the automobile traffic is heaviest. The thing has got to be my nerves, said James A. ENVOY WILL ACCOMPANY WILSON'S SECOND NOTE

Washington, June 4---The American government's rejoinder to the recent German note concerning the sinking of the Lusitania was ready to be laid before the cabinet today. President Wilson drafted the communication himself. It is short and to the point. It asks definitely whether Germany intends to negotiate in the future by the humane principles embodied in international law for the conduct of maritime warfare.

The dispatch of the note to Berlin only awaits cabinet approval. With its transmission a personal representative of Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, will leave for Berlin to personally outline to the German government officials the situation in the United States as respects public opinion towards the German government, and to explain the American point of view on submarine warfare as gleaned by the ambassador from his conference on Wednesday with President Wilson. Foreign governments have given assurances of safe conduct for the embassy at the request of President Wilson.

The special envoy will supplement the memorandum, called by the ambassador to his government regarding his interview with the president. In it he described the emphasis laid by the president on the fact that the United States would omit no word or act to secure an acquiescence in its position by the Lusitania case.

Hoppe was expressed at the German embassy today that the ambassador's plan would result in a satisfactory outcome of the delicate situation that has arisen. He was said to be confident that officials in Berlin, whom he thinks were not informed on the feeling in the United States when the last was written at Berlin, will now learn important details that will aid them replying to the last American note.

MEXICANS ADVANCE ON CITY DESPITE WARNING

Douglas, Ariz., June 4---General Yribarre, a Carranza commander, has abandoned his campaign of conquest in Southern Sonora and has retired to Mazatlan, leaving Gen. Angel Flores with an advance guard of 2,000 troops at a point 75 miles south of Nogales without hope of reinforcement, according to word received here today.

Despite the warning issued yesterday by Colonel D. M. O'Connor, commander of the United States border patrol in the Yuma command, Generals Yribarre and Trujillo, that no attack be made on Agua Prieta because of danger to American lives, and properly in Arizona, it is reported that Yribarre, with a force of Yagui Indians, has joined the Carranza troops in Agua Prieta, 22 miles west of Agua Prieta. The combined troops, it is said, will cooperate with Trujillo, who is advancing from the south with 1,000 troops. The Villa command announced that 2,000 troops were enroute from Casas Grandes, Chihuahua, to Sonora to aid in the investment of Agua Prieta.

OHIO SPELLERS BEGIN "BEE" THIS AFTERNOON

Columbus, June 4---Four score grade and high school pupils—champion spellers in their respective communities—arrived here this morning to take part in the preliminary session of the Ohio spelling contest, the principal session of which will be held in Memorial hall this afternoon. Arrangements for the spelling "bee" were begun several months ago by the state agricultural commission and vestimentary contests have been held in most of the counties of the state to select entrants. In the event, 100 words, the contestants, who range from 12 to 17 years of age, were studying a list of 5,000 words mailed to them by the commission.

Cleveland, June 4---Michael Sherock, 43, and Fred Elliot, 58, employees of the Standard Oil Company, were fatally burned early today and a third man was seriously injured, when fire destroyed the contents of a 200,000 gallon oil tank in the oil company's plant in the Kingsbury Run valley.

The victims were burned when they rushed into the midst of the flames to shut off the valves connecting the burning tank with others nearby. Firemen prevented the spread of the fire which endangered fifty other tanks containing 10,000, 500,000 gallons of oil. The fire burned spectacularly for three hours.

U. S. AIDS RED CROSS IN MEXICAN WORK

Washington, June 4---Without waiting to see how the contending military factions of Mexico take President Wilson's warning, administration officials were today co-operating with the American Red Cross in carrying forward plans for relieving the Mexican civilian population from further distress and suffering resulting from the incessant warfare in the southern republic.

All the relief plans in which governmental agencies are aiding were ready to be laid before the Red Cross executive committee today. They include the organization of special committees in the principal cities of the country for the collection and forwarding of supplies to Mexico, supervision over the movement of supplies, efforts to secure either free transportation or reduced rates for foodstuffs in border points and instructions by the government consular officers and military posts along the border to aid in supplying and moving food supplies. Meantime, the effect of President Wilson's demand for order on the leaders of the various military factions in Mexico still were awaited with keen interest. It is definitely known here whether or not all the factional leaders have received the president's statement, although official advisers told of the receipt by American consular representatives in Mexico of copies.

The ultimate outcome of the battle between Villa and Obregon forces at Silao also, was awaited with considerable interest. Meagre official advices confirmed claims of a victory for Villa there. Upon the result of this battle hinges supremacy in Central Mexico and possibly the success of a final effort to bring the contending factions together to establish a new government.

Transients, as it were, "No, do you keep any servants?" "No, of course not." "Did I thought I saw one in your kitchen?" "Oh, we have servants on the premises a day or two at a time, but we don't keep them."

ANOTHER VIEW OF MEXICAN MESSAGE.

The Roanoke World News does not agree with us or any one else in the conclusion that President Wilson's note to Mexico forebodes a more vigorous policy in regard to Mexican affairs, and that failure of the factions to get together will mean intervention. It thinks that the President intends simply to get behind some one leader, if they cannot agree among themselves, recognize him and refuse to sell arms and ammunition to the outsiders, trusting to peace and recognition to bring about peace. Commenting upon this hypothesis, the World-News concludes its article in these words:

"What Mr. Wilson proposes is purely a repetition of the old ideas, the application of a beautiful vision to a hard and cold proposition. It reminds us of a child strumming on a piano. He hits the same note every time in the same monotonous fashion."

DONAHEY AND THE LEGISLATURE.

State Auditor Donahey is a friend of the people. He has put accountants to work to look up unjust and illegal expenditure of money by the legislature and its members. It is high time this was done. The people have been imposed upon by legislators for years, and they submit to it as a matter of course, never thinking for a moment that this abuse is a cancer at the heart of the government. No man can be a good legislator who spends a cent of the people's money dishonestly.

So it is a great public service the state auditor is rendering the people. It has become the prevailing idea that the public treasury is at the mercy of the legislators and there should be no questions asked as to what they have done with it. Thank heaven, we have in the state auditor's office a man who detects this doctrine, and who proposes to resist to the end all unwarranted expenditures. We hope Mr. Donahey will be vigorous and relentless in this matter, for all parts of a free government a reckless legislature is the worst.

That the legislature should spend several thousands of dollars for sets of the general code for the members thereof is throwing money away; making bonuses to employees are pure donations, paying for long-distance telephone calls with members' homes; buying rugs, pocket knives, hair brushes, combs, flowers, etc., are only a few of the illegal ways of spending the people's money. It is hoped all these will be discovered and a list be made of them, so the people will know how they have been imposed upon; and also, to inform future legislatures of the abuses they should avoid.—Columbus Journal.

WAS FRANCE IN DANGER OF "GERMANIZATION"?

The more thoughtful among the French people, says ex-Senator Heveridge in the American Review of Reviews for June, believed before the war that their country was already being "Germanized."

"German workmen have steadily been taking the place of French laborers; here in France, here in Paris," said one of the most dependable of this class. "German business men were rooting out French business men. The Germans were even buying our land. This has been going on all over France," he continued. "And with them, these multitudes of German brought their industrial methods, their ideals of life, their so-called 'Kultur.' It is a fact that if this had gone on, it would not have been a great many years until they would have taken France."

This statement was so astounding that careful inquiry was made as to its accuracy. Without a single exception, it was confirmed by those questioned concerning it. "It is quite true," said an American friend of thirty years' standing, who is one of the best-informed men in the country, and whose conservative, solid, and cautious understatement are his principal characteristics. "It is quite true," he testified. "For example, many of the largest dressmaking establishments, which American women suppose to be French, are in reality owned by Germans."

A foreign business man, manager of a large plant in a certain part of the Republic, testified that "the Germans were taking France in an industrial and business way." Asked as to how this was possible, he explained, from his own experience, that it was due to the infinite pains the Germans took to supply just what their customers or clients desired, their patient labor, and prudent foresight.

And so Governor Willis is going on a special train junket to the exposition at San Francisco. Well, probably it would meet with the unanimous approval of the Hon. Jack Arnold, lieutenant governor, if somebody would pay the governor to keep once a perpetual junket and stay outside of the state of Ohio for the next eighteen months. "Jack" could then make hay for his vice presidential boom while the governor junkets.

WHEN PATIENCE HAS CEASED TO BE A VIRTUE.

Judging from only mild expressions of regret from the Ohio State Federation of Labor officials over the way in which their legislative agents were kicked and hooted around by the legislature, the legislature might be justified in concluding that the strong arm method was the proper one, so far as labor legislation is concerned.

James Walsh, wealthy club man of Baltimore, a jag and an automobile trail over a woman and killed her, the other day. Now Walsh, minus the jag and the automobile, is on his way to the penitentiary to serve a two years sentence. That is right, reckless automobile driving must be stopped and prison bars is the most effective way to do it.

We do not take much stock in this talk of referendum of laws passed by the recent legislature. It looks better sense to us to reserve the ammunition until next year when the laws are in actual operation. Then we can see what their effect has been and how they compare with the laws they succeeded.

It is most shocking in these days of the peaceful primary and the rule of the plain people to hear that the Republican leaders have been foregathered in order to pick out a ticket for the voters of their faith to approve at the coming primary.

Over the grave comes the news from Ironton that Judge B. B. Corn is grooming himself for the congressional seat in the new Tenth district now filled by Hon. Robert M. Switzer. Corn is congressional lumber all right, but just wait until the Scioto county Mohawks trot out their champion. Then will the walkin' ring as it never rung before.

Then again, the president may have figured it out that our army and navy may stand in need of a little maneuvering and expanding, and training so as to be in a state of preparedness for eventualities in our European complications. And that is where the Mexican situation comes in handy. See?

That new telephone directory of the Illinois Telephone Company has such a pretty and artistic back on it that we are constantly on the verge of packing it home as an ornament and addition to our library.

We have a burning curiosity to know just exactly what Congressman Charlie Kearns thinks in his inmost heart and soul about this new gerrymander his friends from Scioto perpetrated.

Rebuked
He was deeply in love with his wife, but awfully careless about money matters. He started away on a long business trip, leaving her short of money, and promising to send her a check—which he forgot to do. The rent came due and she telegraphed:

"Dead broke. Landlord insistent. Wire me money."
Her husband answered:

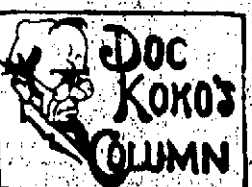

"Am short myself. Will send check in few days. A thousand kisses."

Exasperated, his wife replied: "Never mind money. I gave landlord one of the kisses. He was more than satisfied."—New York Times.

Where Ignorance Is Bliss, Etc.
A woman came in to the general store with a jar of butter. She desired to exchange it for another jar of butter. In chattering, she explained, she had discovered a mouse in the churn.

"It didn't injure the butter," she said to the storekeeper, "and to any one who did not know the circumstances it would taste all right."

Taking the woman at her word, the merchant carried her jar into the back room, transferred her butter to another jar, and the gratified customer took back her mouse butter with a thousand thanks for the accommodation.

Friends With Life.

Give me green patens and the quiet hills.

Where peace will mix a philter for my ill.

Raffers of cedar and of sycamore, Where I can stretch out on the fragrant floor.

And see them pass—the softly stepping shapes—By the still pool where hang the tart wild grapes.

There in the hills of summer let me lie.

On the cool grass in friendship with the sky.

Let me lie there in love with earth and sun.

And wonder up at the lightfoot winds that run.

Stirring the delicate edges of the trees.

And shaking down the music of the sea.

Bring some old book—"The Roman of the Rose,"

A song through which the wine of morning blows.

Let me stretch out at friends with life at last.

Forgetting all the clamors of the past—

The broken dream, the flying word unjust.

The failure and the friendship goes to dust.

New York, June 4.—The West End actor, went into a Broadway cafe the other night and met the famous theatrical manager who is about four feet high. Corse studied him intently for some seconds.

"Say," he finally said, "do you know what you remind me of?"

"No," replied the manager. "What do I remind you of?"

"Just as little as Corse for the role about ending a sentence with a proposition."

"Well, you remind me of a deck hand on a submarine," was the answer.

A New Yorker with a righteous grinch pens a protest to the colonizing of unhygienic newspapers. The steamship company operating a ferry across Long Island Sound issues tickets which state that they are good for one continuous trip in either direction between Sea-Cliff and New Rochelle.

What puzzles the traveler is this: Suppose he should stop off for a day or so in the middle of the sound and then seek to resume the trip. Would he have to get a new ticket?

It seems outrageous to him if this should be so.

Slome Gordon, the magazine writer, met an old friend of his from Ohio on Broadway. It seems the friend is now running around with a widow much older than he is. The gossipers whisper that Gordon asked him how he was progressing and then ventured to ask him about the widow. "And the lady?" he said. "I hear she is attractive—has beautiful teeth."

"Beautiful!" he replied. "Indeed they are—both of them."

Well, said a sympathetic friend to John J. McGraw at the Polo Grounds, is it a fair fight for over.

"No," McGraw admitted. "That is true. Eventually it will show."

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. It is not the most dangerous of human afflictions. It is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and excrete it in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work. They become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water, "drink" which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

HEARING IN B. L. T. CASE IS POSTPONED A WEEK

NICHOLAS KLEIN IS TO DEFEND UNIONS

(BULLETIN)

By agreement of counsel hearing of the suit against the local Building Trades Council was postponed this morning until next Friday morning, June 11. At that time assignment for permanent hearing will also be made.

Determined effort will be made by the members of the Building Trades Council and its auxiliary bodies in contesting the suit for permanent injunction and dissolution of the Council, filed late Thursday afternoon by Attorney H. H. Klein, of Cincinnati, who was here about three weeks ago to advise the three union plumbers relative to their control over the master plumbers, which has brought on the suit. Attorney H. H. Klein, of Cincinnati, was notified by telephone Thursday evening of the latest turn in the suit, and went word that he would arrive in Portsmouth this morning at nine o'clock to make arrangements to contest the application for a permanent injunction and permanent dissolution of the Council.

Until his arrival nothing will be done by the defendants to contest the action. The plan of defense will be decided upon at a conference to be held between Mr. Klein and the officers of the union organizations soon after his arrival.

Henry Strong, business agent of the Building Trades Council, stated Thursday evening that there was nothing to give out on the defendants' side of the case, as they preferred to await the arrival of Mr. Klein before discussing the matter. He said, however, that "no trouble would be experienced in showing that the major portion of the allegations of the plaintiffs' petition of conspiracy and unlawful combination could not be substantiated in court. He also stated that the defendants expected the filing of the suit and were not at all surprised when it was filed.

All of the defendants who could be located were here Thursday evening by Sheriff Arthur Witham, to appear in court this morning at nine o'clock.

The suit is the biggest sensation in years in local union circles, and owing to its nature, has a far-reaching effect. The legitimacy of the Building Trades Councils all over the state are in question, and the outcome of the suit will be watched with interest all over the country.

Boys Hurt When Auto Jumps Curb

Bursting of a tire on an automobile truck driven by Lark Cover, a car salesman of London, caused it to swerve from its course and plunge over the curb on to the sidewalk at Grant and High streets, Thursday evening, about 6 o'clock. The machine ran into the midst of a crowd of children playing on the sidewalk, two of them, Val Heisel and Richard Ames, being knocked down and injured.

The Heisel youth, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Heisel, was the most painfully injured, suffering multiple bruises about the head, face and body. At first it was thought he had been fatally injured, and four physicians were hurriedly summoned to attend him. An examination disclosed no bones broken, and his injuries were not of a serious nature. He was greatly improved this morning and will be out again in a few days. The Ames lad was only slightly injured.

The accident was clearly unavoidable, as the bursting of the tire caused the driver to lose control of his machine, which eye-witnesses saw was not traveling at a high rate of speed.
